

SAVE OUR HEROES[®]

ADVOCATING FOR MILITARY JUSTICE REFORM AND EQUAL JUSTICE FOR ALL

 PRESS RELEASE ***

28 February 2019

Save Our Heroes' (SOH) will be testifying before the Senate Armed Services, Sub-Committee on Personnel on Wednesday, 6 March 2019.

SOH learned today, President and Chairman of the Board of Directors, Retired Air Force Colonel Doug James will sit on one of two panels discussing various issues related to sexual assaults in the armed forces. Several speakers will present views which you can view by visiting the Senate Armed Services Committee's website at the following link; <https://www.armed-services.senate.gov/hearings/19-03-06-military-services-prevention-of-and-response-to-sexual-assault> .

Save Our Heroes' (SOH) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization founded in 2015, and is devoted to passionately advocating and supporting, U.S. service members and their families, who are facing false allegations, wrongful military justice action, and those who have been wrongfully convicted.

SOH, along with similar organizations, works towards evidence and fact-based military justice reform as well as conducting advocacy efforts for accountability of those who pervert the military justice system, through false allegations, prosecutorial misconduct, or unlawful command influence.

Our Directors, Advisors, and Volunteers are men and women from a wide variety of professions; including current, former, and retired service members from all branches. You can learn more about SOH, our interests and efforts, by visiting our website, www.saveourheroesproject.org.

Michael Konzachi

Director of Investigations, Save Our Heroes'